SUNDAY, MAY 8, 1864.

THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS

There is a sort of thin coat of varnish over the present state of things, which makes people believe at first sight that the confederate system of governing this republic is the very perfection of legislation.

There is not a more patched up and cobbled system of governing one million and a quarter of human beings than the Argentine Federal system. We doubt if the inventive genius of man could fabricate a Government more calculated to create revolution, disturbance and anarchy, than the one we have. A country thinly inhabited, possessing mutual interests, identical in language manners and race, is split up into fourteen different Governments, which are severally independent of each other, yet married altogether on a sort of Mormon plan, and yclept the Argentine nation.

But the article which appeared in yesterday morning's 'Tribune,' we should not have troubled our readers with this tedious political question, but our colleague bemoans the condition of Buenos Ayres, and as proof of the injustice done this province, states that Salta and Jujuy have their own legislators, their own provincial chambers, free, enlightened and independent, yet Buenos Ayres has none.

Of course this article entitled the "Death of Buenos Ayres" is calculated to create a rather serious sensation amongst all superficial thinkers, who will naturally believe that Buenos Ayres is victimized, but to our mind the greatest benefit which could accrue to this country would be the death of all our petty Provincial Governments.

Any man who knows anything at all about the River Plate, must admit that these Provincial Governments have had a fair trial, and have proved a miserable failure. We hope therefore that the "Tribune" is right, that the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres is dead, that San'a Fe, Cordoba, Entre Rios, and all the other Provincial Governments will meet a like fate, and that in the Argentine Republic, power will be concentrated in one man, and that man President Mitre.

The country is at present torn and convulsed by hundreds of petty local parties or cliques; there is not a province in the country which is not infested with them.

It is absurd to say that the republic is divided into two great parties, the Federal, and Unitario, since in every province these parties bear a different tint. The political cliques or parties in this republic are now nearly as numerous as those of the Union before the war. The Unitario of Buenos Ayres is of the Voltarian school, and the very reverse of a free thinker. In Corrientes he is a red republican, in Entre Rios he is a Mazzini, in Santa Fe he is a sound radical reformer, in Cordova he is a despot, in Tucuman he is a Mormon, in Mendoza a well-dressed gentleman, in Santiago del Estero a visionary, in San Juan a speculator, in Jujuy an educated pauper, in Salta a Montenero; whilst on the contrary, the Federal in Buenos Ayres is either an old fogy or a quacho, in Corrientes he is the man of property, in Entre Rios the lover of peace and order at any cost, in Santa Fe the adherer to old customs and habits, in Cordova the peaceable and quiet citizen, in Tucuman the illiterate land owner, in Mendoza the shrimp aristocrat, in Santiago del Estero the sound practical man, in San Juan the revolutionist, in Jujuy the wealthy planter, in Salta the respecter of the laws and the mainstay of the Government.

President Mitre is called to rule over a country composed of such a heterogeneous mass of politicians, he is obliged 'ex-officio' to please everybody, and if he fails in this he is worse than Rosas. In Buenos Ayres the President is regarded by his political opponents as a despot, a Federal, a sworn enemy of the province. In Entre Rios he is a cowardly Portenho, in Corrientes he is looked on as a sort of slave trader who seeks to carry off the free and enlightened Correntines into slavery and bondage. In San Juan he is thought to be a first rate schoolmaster. In the rest of the provinces nobody knows anything about him, and his Government is only known as the Porteño administration.

Under such a different Governments all embodied in one; each of these 14 Governments is pulling in different ways, until at last the unfortunate National Government, which should be the strongest in the country, can only be regarded as a sort of fool in the middle, disjointed and undone.

Let it not be supposed for one instant that we wish to throw ridicule upon President Mitre—far from it; but since there is still left liberty of the press, let us candidly and courageously speak out the truth: the present system of Government is a failure, a miserable illusion. The present system of governing this republic is unsafe and ill adapted for the customs, wants, and passions of the people; the present Congress remodels the Constitution and sweeps away all the petty Governments of the provinces, and in their place creates, at large, and for General Mitre its President.

The New Steam-boat Lines of Messrs. Harrison & Mansilla.

The new steam-boat contract between the Government and Messrs. Harrison and Mansilla is about to be presented to Congress: it is one of the most important enterprises ever undertaken in this country.

Messrs. Harrison and Mausilla agree to establish six lines of steamers from this port.

One between Buenos Ayres and Montevideo.

One between Buenos Ayres and Rosario, touching at intermediate ports.

One between Buenos Ayres and Gualeguay, in connection with the Rosario line.

One between Rosario and Corrientes, touching at intermediate ports.

One between Buenos Ayres and Concordia, touching at intermediate ports.

One between Buenos Ayres and Bahia Blanca.

The steamers on these lines shall make their trips as follows:—

The first trips a week on each of the following lines—Montevideo, Rosario, and Concordia.

Four round trips per month on the Corrientes and Gualeguay lines.

One round trip every twenty days on the Bahia Blanca line.

All these lines shall be established within eighteen months after the approval of Congress, with the exception of the Bahia Blanca line, which shall be started in eight months after approval.

The contract to last for five years, and the fares and freight to be reduced 50 per cent. from the present tariff: emigrants only to pay half price.

The steamers shall be constructed expressly for the purpose, and shall be the first that ever entered the River Plate. Mails to be carried free, and Government to be at liberty to send troops, troopers and two tons of cargo free each trip.

Such are the terms of the proposed contract, which we understand only awaits the action of Congress to be at once carried out. Snr. Mansilla, who is the principal proprietor of the Argentine Steam Navigation Co., will be the mails through the interior, is the party associated with Captain Harrison in these enterprises. The number and class of steamers will, therefore, be in combination with Snr. Mansilla's line of coaches, which cannot but be regarded as a double advantage to the public, as booked in the most distant province through to Buenos Ayres, Montevideo, or Bahia Blanca.

We understand that the Minister has already sanctioned the proposed contract, and that it only now requires the sanction of Congress.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Veritas, corpus Santa Maria, is the great suit pending in town at present. Every one is asking who Veritas is, and what answer Sr. Santa Maria will make to the letter published in yesterday's 'Standard.' Town is rife with all sorts of rumours respecting our Consuls in London. The on dit yesterday was, that Mr. Elizalde had stated both Mr. Sampson and Mr. Fair must be removed. The 'Ferro-Carril' of Rosario, contains some rather serious charges against Mr. John Fair respecting the matter, and calls upon the Government to at once remove him from the post of Consul.

On Monday, at one o'clock, the Secretary of the Bank will burn four millions of paper money. The public are invited to attend. We hope some of our friends will go to the Bank to see that the money is properly counted.

We have received another communication from a friend of Mr. Wheelwright, in answer to Sr. Santa Maria's letter, but as the Veritas' reply embraces all the points raised, we have thought it unnecessary to publish it.

There seems to be a regular set on the doctors, by the rowdies of Buenos Ayres. One of our most distinguished physicians, called yesterday to visit a lady patient, and whilst feeling her pulse, she caught sight of a revolver in his breast pocket, which nearly made her faint. It appears that the medical men all carry revolvers now, and under no circumstances will attend a call in the middle of the night, unless supplied with a body guard.

The news from the camp districts, respecting the grass, is good. Many of our countrymen are in town at present, and they speak in the most prospects of the farmers for the year never were better. Sheep, however, in consequence of the alarming increase of cruito in the camp, have fallen in value. No one seems anxious to invest in sheepfarming, until some reforms are introduced for the better protection of life and property. Robberies are everywhere on the increase, and murders also. If instead of a Governor, with Ministers, we had had one good man as commandante over the whole camp, who, when a crime was committed, had called out the whole country to find the culprit. What a beneficial change it would be. Property of every description would increase in value, and fresh cattle every day find its way to our portidos: the present mockery of justice in the camp is the ruin of the country. As an instance of the great difficulty in managing property in the camp, we may remark that a flock of superior merino sheep were sold on the estate of Usher, at 45 dols., on two years' credit, without interest. This is a sign of the times!

The last act of traction engines is expected to arrive per next Liverpool steamer. We may soon look for the practical working of this great problem, second in importance only to the Great Central Railway. In a Sheffield paper we read an interesting account of several experiments of Boydell's Endless Railways.

General Taboada of Santiago is most anxious to form an English colony in his province. He offers as much as 20 sitiares to any intelligent Englishman who will manage same, and further more lends seed, cattle &c. to all well conducted foreigners settling down there. Mr. Kemsley, 140 calle Parque will give full particulars.

Consul Gardiner is accused of stating that land could be had at in the interior at 30 shilling per sq. league (3,500 acres). We have no doubt an idea that we take on ourselves to accept our friend and countryman of the charge. It would be difficult to find land at such prices in this country.

There is a magnificent tract of 11 sq. leagues for sale, at the Rincon de Soto, a fine estancia on the Correntino coast of the Parana. We learn that Del Sar's estancia in this neighborhood is about to resume operations under a new manager.

Bad news for Cotton: all the Parana plantations have failed, in most part. We are however happy to hear of a second joint stock cotton society being formed in Corrientes.

Cap. Harrison has returned from Hartgenus with the contract for the Rosario mail coach. We believe he departs for Europe by next packet.

The Liverpool steamer, left this port for England, via Montevideo, last evening, with a full cargo and large number of passengers.

Her Excellency leaves on Thursday 12th inst. and we may expect the Mercey to arrive next day or Saturday.

On dit that the Correntino empresa ca'dero, yet entered on H. Ayrean calendars wil, come before the courts. It is said that both parties being Englishmen; the plaintiff Mr. Hutchinson and the Defendant a distinguished ship-broker.

We have been favored with vol. VI. of the Postal Report for the Republic. It is very interesting, except in the matter of figures, which as usual, serve causes a loss to the Exchequer. We will review it in our next.

The Provincial Chamber has not accepted the resignations of the Provincial Senators, but declared their seats vacant. This is a distinction without a different.

The Senor Congress members arrived yesterday: it is thought the solemn inauguration of the National Chambers will take place on to-morrow or Monday.

It is rumoured that Sr. Caron is about to resign his post as Chief of Police, and will be succeeded by Colonel Diaz.

The Irishmen of Leones, Villa Mercedes, are about to build a church on Mr. John Dillon's estancia, having already obtained the services of a Bishop, and the money not being wanting.

The 'Pueblo' states that a Cabinet meeting took place on Friday at the Provincial Government House to appoint a successor to Dr. Acosta. Sr. Rejedon was mentioned, but rejected by a majority of Crudo politicians, and the choice fell on D. Adolfo Alsina.

The opera of Hernani will be given to-night at Colon.

PORTUGUESE ITEMS.

There was great excitement caused in Lisbon on the night of the 17th March, by the arrival in the Tagus of the Austrian gunboat Seehund, and the Austrian frigate Schwanberg, with the Danish brig Grethe, which they had captured on her voyage from Leith to Barcelona.

The capture was made on the 16th, at 10 p.m., in 36 deg 40 min N. and 8 deg 10 sec. W. long., from the Cape of Santa Maria. According to the statement of the captain of the brig, the commander of the frigate declared his ignorance of the latitude in which the prize was taken.

The affair has caused much discussion, as the public opinion is that the vessel was taken in Portuguese waters. Active diplomatic notes have passed between the Austrian and Danish Ministers and the Portuguese Government. According to the Portuguese laws, the captor and captured are not allowed to remain in Portuguese ports, and the Minister for Foreign Affairs has notified this to the Austrian Minister. The brig Grethe has been smuggling left the Tagus in charge of an Austrian officer and a prize crew. The Danish flag, and crew of the brig are also on board of her.

Well done, Austria! A gunboat and a frigate capturing a small brig, and then their being assisted by Portugal (as the men of war, according to their own statement, were like the Canadian Steamers, Portuguese, at sea, but did not know where), is a feather in your cap, as a naval power!

The Portuguese Government are publishing an alphabetical list of all the shipwrecks which have taken place on their coasts, and those adjacent, during the year 1863. There have been 23 shipwrecks, of these 13 were Portuguese, 2 French, 1 Russian, 4 British, 1 Italian, 1 Austrian, 1 Spanish, and 1 Hamburgh, and 1 Dutch. All the crews were saved, and the only loss of life was that of 6 passengers by the barque San Bernardin which was burnt in the Mondego Oil Mills Company, limited, a new company has been started in London, for the purpose of manufacturing, on a large scale, linseed oil. The capital is £100,000, in 10,000 shares of £10 each. The bankers in Lisbon are the Lisbon and Brazilian Bank.

A proposition has been made to the Government, by some London capitalists, to construct a railway from Lisbon to Mafra, passing by Queluz Grande, Benfica Luz, and Cintra.

A terrible disaster took place at Oporto, on Friday, lately. The Oporto mail diligence, in passing along a bridge, fell into the river. The conductor and one passenger were saved. Two passengers, however, were carried away by the force of the current; three of them and four horses were drowned —Diario de Rio de Janeiro."

IMPORTANT FROM SAN JUAN

NEWS FROM THE MINES

SHARES ALL BOUGHT UP

Notwithstanding that we take the greatest possible interest in the San Juan Mining Company, we very seldom receive authentic information from Mr. Rickard. Yesterday, a shareholder in this company favoured us with a letter which he received from San Juan, under date the 21st April last. The shareholders of the Mining Company have accepted the proposal of Major Rickard to buy up all the shares, and they have agreed to form a large English company with a capital of £200,000. He is willing to let the Buenos Ayrean shareholders keep, but from what we can call due, and agree to his plan. which is really an excellent one, and we shall soon have a big English concern, a heap of money will be made."

ENTRE RIOS.

New Governor Installed.

On Sunday last inst. Governor Urquiza resigned the reins of power into the hands of D. Jose M. Domenguez. The new Governor placed his hand on the Holy Gospels and took the usual oaths, after which he made a brilliant speech from which we extract as follows.

"I cannot express the sentiments which fill my breast, on being called to succeed the illustrious chief who during his filled the entire Republic, whose sword has overturned the despotism of tyrants and whose genius has created for a free nation, and whose kindness has caused him to be regarded as the "father of his people." Fidelity to the Constitution and loyalty to the Republic is my programme."

Gen. Urquiza said "I joyfully resign the command in your hands, and in you I recognise not only the elect of the people, but moreover an upright citizen, steady friend and distinguished statesman. Take the reins of Government with confidence, and count upon the aid of the Entre Rian people and upon mine."

After several other speeches, the artillery fired a salute in the Plaza Ramirez in honor of the new Governor, and the officials and citizens went to sing a solemn Te Deum in the church.

The troops were passed in review after the ceremony, and then the cortege proceeded to the Government house where a splendid repast was laid out. At the same time the Director and members of the Congress college presented a flattering address to Gen. Urquiza, and the day was a festivity to among the citizens of Concepcion.

The new Administration has formed his Cabinet of Drs. Nicanor Molinas, and Jose d. Sagastume, both of whom have filled with the dignity of Minister. The new regime seems to give general satisfaction, and the vexed question of Gen. Urquiza's successor has passed off without difficulty, and even with eclat. The harmony existed between Gen. Urquiza and the Gobernents of his province and of the Republic will have a good effect in checking the spirit of disorder which was casting its roots so widely, thanks to the turbulent citizens, both in Parana and Buenos Ayres.

STATUE TO GEN. URQUIZA.

The Legislature of Entre Rios has decreed as follows:

1st. The Excellency Captain General Justo Jose Urquiza, first constitutional Governor of this province, has deserved well of his country and is entitled to public thanks.

2. All the Provincial authorities, in their official documents shall treat him, during his life, with the title of "Excellency."

3. The Executive shall erect in the new plaza a column surmounted with the statue of Gen Urquiza.

4. At the foot of the statue shall be engraved "Dicsite a me virtutem, belique Ego Laborem:" and on the pedestal a text of his present law.

5. After the inauguration of the statue, the plaza will be called after General Urquiza.

6. A committee of the Provincial Assembly shall present to General Urquiza a copy of the present law. Concepcion, July 1st 1864.

Note. The Legislature would do well to translate the Latin legend, the word of which being unintelligible, and leaving the phrase open to some "internal" allusions.

CORRIENTES.

We have received the Progreso to the 1st inst. Mr. Zinny had concluded the examinations of the Colegio Argentino. The Chamber was occupied with the reformation of the Constitution. General Caceres arrived on the 30th ult. D. Manuel V. Fernandez has been named to the Directory of the State Bank. The steamer Gen Chenot arrived from Rio Verongo, 25th ult., having been 20 days on the voyage from Rivadavia colony: her cargo is tanned hides, and she met with several accidents coming down the river. She was to leave Corrientes for B Ayres on the 2th April. D. Serafin Gibson, of Goya, an Anglo Argentine Nat. Guard refused to attend parade on the festivals of Holy Week: he was, therefore, ordered under arrest for 8 days, but this was afterwards commuted to 24 hours. The Progreso brings no news of cotton, the editor filling up a large portion of his columns with apophthegms and proverbs about love and women. Paper currency 238 per doubloon.

ANOTHER PRIVATE BANK

We understand that the National Government has received proposals from an influential foreigner, for the establishment of another private bank.

At present the matter is kept a great secret in the Government-house, but, unusual, this secret has found its way to the 'Standard' office. We give it to our readers.

We understand, that the capital of the proposed bank is no less than two millions sterling, which is to be raised principally in public funds in this and the other provinces.

The Government, with property, regard to the matter will be given, it will be brought before Congress immediately.

We know that the prospectus of the new bank speaks, in the most flattering terms, of the immense business done by the London and River Plate Bank.

BRAZILIAN ITEMS.

Minas Geraes. Dates have arrived from Minas Geraes, and we extract the following news from the papers.

In the place called Varzea Alegre, district of the Villa da Ponte Nova, on the 8th March, Antonio Gomez da Silveira was murdered by a slave of his, called Jose, who stabbed his master with a knife above the heart. The murderer also murdered another slave and wounded him. He was pursued by the other slaves and captured and handed over to the police.

A On the 18th March, at Panth, half a league from the village of Piranga, Joao Ignacio Martins, attacked Claudino Joaquim de Oliveira, who received 13 slight in his left leg, and was wounded with a knife. The assassin was captured.

On the 6th March last at 11 a.m. Antonio Alves da Rocha, community called, Barboleita committed suicide."

At the moment of committing this act of madness, and when he had armed himself with an axe, he called his wife and asked her to embrace him as he was going to die. The poor woman wishing to turn aside the blow threw herself upon him, and received a slight wound, the unfortunate man had given a small push with which he destroyed himself a few minutes afterwards.—Diario do Rio de Janeiro.

IMPORTANT.

The Pueblo gives the following extract from the Espatri.

"A letter from Montevideo, from a respectable Spaniard (a Vizcaino foreigner?) who is well posted up in public affairs, asserts that the Brazilian intervention meets with the approval of England, and that the occupation of the Oriental territory, instead of being temporary, will be perpetual."

Should such be the case, it would be the very best thing that could happen to the country, for the remark made by Steede, the friend of the great Liberator when speaking of this country, quite suits the Oriental republic.

Scele was wont to say Darataria is the finest country in the world, but the people are arrant knaves. The judges are rogues, the jury are rogues, and the people are villians. If Brazil really intends to civilize Oriental, some good may get be expected from that unhappy country, and in his next speech M. Thiers will be obliged to except Uruguay from the backward states of South America.

ONE STEAMER MORE.

We shall soon have another steamer on the station of Uruguay and Montevideo, the new British steamer 'Fairy,' The following particulars of which have been forwarded to us by her agent, Mr. Henry Dowse:—

"The beautiful British steamer will soon be placed on the Uruguay station, touching at this port, on her trips out and in. At present there are are from 30 to 40 ton on board of her, putting her up and ready for sea, and expected that the Acting Agent will be Henry Dowse, Calle Cuyo No. 1."

The following particulars and her size and capabilities are taken from the 'Pais' of Montevideo:—

"The Fairy—Yesterday morning, the fine steamer started on a pleasure and trial trip; she reached in one hour the Isla de Flores, which is generally considered about five leagues distant, and from there Wm Wemyss, Esq., one of the station of the Uruguay, calling at the different ports on the coast, thus were expected to meet with the commercial public With respect to her capabilities, she has only been sailing for six weeks, and her usual speed is from 10 to 11 knots per hour. She is 150 feet in length, 23 feet in breadth, 7 feeth depth of hold drawa 4 feet draught of water, she has 2 saloons for ladies, 1 do. for men, 1 large saloon, 1 fore cabin. Her hurricane deck is 40 feet long and 10 feet broad, with a saloon thereon. She has also a magnificent service of plate, a machine for making ice, and a piano.—" Nacion Argentina.'

SR. PINILLA

The Gefe Politico of Payssndu

A Prussian periodical, 'The New Evangelic Gazette,' published in Berlin, has given a very glowing terms of Sr. Pinilla, the Gefe Politico of the Department of Payssndu. Amongst other things, that newspaper says:—

"This gentleman, Sr Pinilla, merits our most sincere sympathies and thanks for his zeal, and gentleness by conducting towards the Protestant subjects of that privileged district which is under his charge. It is owing to him that the first steps have been taken for the formation of a Protestant cemetery, he having given the land for that purpose, and the consecration of the silver disks. It is solely owing to his paternal care and anxiety for the welfare, that the European emigrants in Payssndu find themselves so comfortably and safely settled.

LATEST from GUALEGUAYCHU

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen,

I am after making a tour through Entre Rios, and I have found the camps in all parts where I have been in a magnificent state—more than half pasturage; cattle, horses, and sheep are rolling in fat—quite as fat as I have ever seen, was mustered by a slave on the months of November or December.

This town is all astir to day, in consequence of the long wished for steamer ESA. From an early hour this morning they have been decorating the banks of the river Gualeguay, for several squares, with flags, &c. The band is also awaiting her arrival. I will be present at the grand function, and will send you an account, as near as I can, of the proceedings.

Yours truly

PARAGUAYAN STEAMERS.

House-office, April 30, 1864.

Considering that the Paraguayan steamers, to which the Administrator of the Customs at Corrientes refers in his note of 14th January last, enjoy the privileges of Packet-boats: they can only wait a short time in the ports, on account of the time for sailing being fixed before hand, the steamers carrying the public correspondence, and this being of great service to the commercial public, it is thought proper to grant them some privileges compatible with the fiscal interest; therefore,

1st. The Paraguayan steamers in their passage through the Argentine ports, may discharge cargo without the necessity of opening a register, or taking out a permit before delivering to the administrators of the customs taking care that at the time appointed for the steamer, the cargo-boats take charge of the cargo discharged, and deposit it temporarily in a spot appointed for the purpose. After a note of the cargo discharged has been taken, the consignees, owners, or agents of the steamers shall be allowed 48 hours to enter the cargo according to the rules of the customs, they paying the duties of warehousemen, and porterage.

2nd. With respect to the cargo, those interested knowing beforehand the day of the arrival of the steamers, will have prepared the packages which they may may wish to shew at the spot appointed by the Minister of the Customs—taking out the customary permits and licences. The Administrators of the Customs agreeing with those concerned, will take all necessary precautions for the interest of the Fiscal, without delaying the regular route of steamers which cannot wait in each port longer than the time fixed.

3rd If in the intermediate ports, the whole of the cargo be not discharged, but only part, a permit shall not be required for the portion landed, and an annotation shall be made on the manifest for the government of the succeeding ports of the port to which the remainder of the cargo is bound; if through oversight this annotation be not made on the manifest, the administrator of the port of home, whose part of the cargo has been left, shall immediately advise the customs authorities of the next port to which the steamer is bound, of this fact.

4th When the number of packages discharged shall be so small, as to come under the head of 'encomiendas,' it shall be left to the option of the administrators of the customs to determine whether or not the parties concerned shall follow out the rules mentioned in the previous article; and for their guidance in this matter they shall take the decree of the 28th may 1863 upon luggage and encomiendas, and the particular nature of each case, for which no general direction can be given.

Communicate this resolution to the Treasury and the Administration of the custom river houses of the coast, and this serve as a guide to them in all similar cases.

THE ROSARIO MAILS.

The "Ferro-carril" dates to the 5th inst. The excitement respecting the Cordoba railway is so great that Messrs. Robertson, Santamarina, and Fair, had better not visit that town for many years to come. The "Ferro carril" does not hesitate to use the epithets "infamous, and unworthy of Englishmen," Senator Moreno, and Deputies Aguirre and Ocampo arrived at Rosario, en route for Buenos Ayres, to take their seats in Congress.

The most horrible accounts are given respecting the condition of Catamarca and Rioja, which are said to be much worse than in the days of Quiroga and Quiroga. The Bishop of Catamarca has expelled 50 students from the College, pretending it is only for secessionistical students, and there are 11 in number.

SUSPICIOUS.

It looks very suspicious, to give it no other name, that Congress and the Senate were both appointed to be opened this month, and were not —and at the same time the import of cordage from Paraguay has fallen off. It looks as though there was some truth in the report of the 'Nacional' that Paraguay entertained evil intentions towards this country, for what is a political orator without an orange? The answer is as clear as mud. There are no oranges, therefore there are no deputies and senators; there are no senators and deputies, therefore there are no chambers; there are no chambers, therefore the country is left at the mercy of Paraguay.

This being Saturday the Bolsa was crowded but the business in specie was extremely limited, owing to a nervous feeling as to the state of things in the provinces. We do not think that the rumours of disturbance in Salta and Catamarca deserve so much importance as to seem to attach to them.

We are now so accustomed to rows in the provinces, that if they all rose, en masse, the price of specie would remain unaltered, local matters have a far more immediate influence on our money market, than even the most sanguinary intelligence from the provinces.

Veritas's letter, in answer to Sr. Santamarina, was greatly talked about on the Bolsa. The general feeling is that Mr. Wheelright has had to contend with a sort of unfair play, and that many other persons besides Mr. Robertson, are implicated in the matter; for our part, we think the less there is said about the business the better.

Every one is talking about the San Juan Mining Company. It appears that some parties are in possession of superior information from Tontal. The shares which were recently issued, at 20 per cent discount are now bid for at par. The only authentic news we could get at the Stock Exchange was to the effect that the Bolsa is in communication with the Provincial Minister on account of the Work's claim, and that the other to gather together all its specie to make the loan to the National Government; however it is, it has caused a sort of squeeze in the money market.

Some bills on England were negotiated to-day at 6⅞.

We heard of a sale of a cargo of salt to arrive at 7½ rls. to be delivered in Rosario.

Also a cargo of coal re-sold on board at 10½ pats.

Salted hides have not gone up as much as people expected, still they are very firm: 2000 were sold to-day at 40 rls.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA & C°.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated by the great commerce of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of want, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other trivialities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited. In the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from the course of its operations which she regulated on the soundest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1868.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty fiat dollars currency to one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency at one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses the Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
